making and state building this book also explores the connection between war commemoration and the creation of nations as sacralized communities that offer meaning and purpose to a world marked by unpredictable change it shows how nationalist military revolutions led to the downfall of empires in total war and the mass production of postcolonial nation states but problems of security have also inspired recurring patterns of re imperialization this book refutes claims that we are now in a global and post national era where traumatic accounts have replaced the heroic narratives that once sustained nation states finally it appraises approaches that claim there is an inherent connection between nationalism and collective violence arguing such connections are largely contingent
